

FOREIGN CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT STATEMENT

The Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) of the United States prohibits corrupt payments to foreign officials for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business or obtaining an improper advantage.

Dwyer Instruments, LLC and any of its affiliated companies (collectively referred to as “DwyerOmega”) acknowledges the FCPA and its prohibitions regarding the payment or giving of, or the promise to pay or give anything of value, either directly or indirectly to an official of a foreign government, foreign government owned business, foreign political party or public international organization for the purpose of influencing an act or decision to secure any improper advantage.

Accordingly, we hereby affirm and attest:

- (i) That we will not knowingly violate the provisions set forth in the FCPA and other applicable U.S. laws and regulations relating to commercial bribery, money laundering, and corrupt business practices, and will not knowingly let any associated party violate the FCPA with respect to the sale, licensing, distribution, or use of associated product(s).
- (ii) That we will not employ the services of any government official or representative in connection with our sales and distribution activities.

The obligations, requirements and claims described herein shall survive the expiration or termination of any business relationship with DwyerOmega’s business units, which includes all its subsidiaries and affiliated companies.
